

VidDrop is an innovative video-based remote work platform. We are making remote work more collaborative, engaging, productive, and fun. We work along with major tools like Zoom and Google Drive.

Remote Teams Have Unique Problems***

A study done in 2020 found that problems with working remotely include:

55% agree that they're expected to be online to prove to their manager, they're working

45% say collaboration and communication is the biggest struggle

20% feel loneliness while working remotely

VidDrop Overview

We focus on helping teams of 10 to 1000 feel connected and inspired while working in a virtual office environment. Our SaaS platform includes four main parts, daily video check-ins, virtual hangouts, incentives & motivational activities, and goals & KPI reporting.

Why

Positively engaged employees outperform other companies by up to 202% while generating 2.5x more revenue.***
